

Below are the times (in California) that we will be offering cohorts for Global Encounter. We've corresponded these times to a few major cities around the world but were not able to include all of the global time zones. You will need to compare your own time zone to Pacific Time (GMT-7).

Once a week we will offer a cohort at the time slots listed below (the day the cohorts will be offered at these times is yet to be determined.) If we do not have enough families sign up for a cohort time slot, we will not be offering a cohort at that time. Instead, we will contact you to offer a new time slot in your time zone.

Please note that on November 7, 2021, Pacific Time goes back one hour for Daylight Savings, and on March 13, 2022 it goes forward one hour. Therefore, the cohort times will also change to reflect Daylight Savings.
